

2019 Youth Preparedness Camp Team Application Now Available!

Do you know a group of teenagers that want to help their school and community be more prepared for emergency situations? Could these teenagers benefit from a five-day camp where they will learn basic response skills, teamwork, and action planning, all in a stimulating and fun environment?

2019 Youth Preparedness Camp: June 9-13

The Texas School Safety Center \(TxSSC\) at Texas State University is now accepting applications for the 2019 Youth Preparedness Camp. TxSSC will scholarship teams of 10 individuals (9 youth and 1 adult) to attend camp, which will take place June 9-13, 2019 at Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas. Scholarships include lodging and meals, all training materials, and a CERT backpack with equipment. The only cost to teams will be travel to and from the camp.

Participants (including the adult sponsor) will receive a full 20-hour Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training that includes a certificate of completion, develop a community action plan as a team, and acquire the leadership skills needed to address emergency preparedness in their schools and/or communities when they return home—all while having one of the most exciting weeks of the summer!

How to Apply

Youth along with an adult sponsor should apply to attend camp as a group, and submit all application materials together. Applications are due no later than 5:00 p.m. on April 12, 2019.
